INTRODUCING the iT10 SERIES

Shoot the Monkey

This shooting gallery will bring out the kid in you and memories of the county fair. Take dead aim and experience the exhilaration of spinning clowns, shattered bottles, dragon tails and annoying monkeys. Some like to spank it, but we prefer to shoot it.

Balloon

Welcome to the whimsical world of the mad scientist. Arrange the air tubes to form a complete connection and see your balloons fly high into the sky.

Street Racing

Speed is of the essence. Timing is everything. Drive this ¼ mile in your souped up dream machine. Time your gear changes and qualify for the nitro boost. If you snooze you loose.

What a Mess

It's your Mother's worst nightmare. This house is a mess and you better find the stuff you need. Do not underestimate the power of observation.

Castle Poker

Dance jester dance. Think you're a player? Prove it. Touch adjacent cards to build poker hands. The higher the combination, the higher the point value. Make all combinations and experience the magic. Oh, it's good to be king!

Hi-Lo

A combination of luck and skill is a prerequisite. Complete a string of cards by predicting if the next card is higher or lower. Play safe and lock in your progress or see your blood pressure rise and play like a pro.

Count Your Fingers

Test your reflexes in this daring game. As the knife glides over your fingers you score points by touching the screen and stabbing the spaces between your fingers. Practice on balloons and hot dogs until the real game begins!

Last Call

You thought physics was tough. A unique, strategic game where each player removes alternating caps from the bar, last move loses. Don't be a quitter, it is not brain surgery. Be a winner and let your opponent experience the last call.

Beach Volleyball

You thought chipmunks only liked nuts. Not in our world. Sun, surf and beach volleyball, what could be more fun? First to 7 wins. Win 2 rounds and whip him again in the bonus round.

Bumper Wars

Take a step into the future, where wars are settled in a galactic octagon. Select your starship and push your opponent over the edge. Last man standing wins.
